

Stephanie Fevrier

Program Facilitator (Community)

Stephanie is a rare gem, with a background in mind set coaching, disenfranchised community engagement, vocational training and employment services case management, Steph excitement and passion for moving individual's forward is infectious and something truly special

With a passion for learning and commitment to self-development Stephanie's has refined her approach to work with Juno's community clients, centering around the pillars of continuous growth and achievement through facing into challenge. Being able to utilize her stakeholder management and business development experience, Stephanie positive influence with our disenfranchised clients has help to transform people life's

Stephanie considers herself a group facilitation professional and her presence in energy when working with groups is rarely matched. Being a certified NLP practitioner and Holistic Therapy coach, she has the skill set for creating positive change in group workshops and enabling others to create systemic changes in their life's and future

Stephanie is our Community Partner Lead Facilitator and Coach and has been successfully preparing our community clients to engage with the Australian employment market and business sector since 2002

Stephanie is a certified NLP practitioner and TAE Facilitator.

Stephanie has delivered training to, and coached teams and individuals from a diverse range of corporate and community clients including; KPMG, BUPA, NAB, ANZ, Hume City Council.

She has also developed and delivered employment pathways programs for; IMVC, Whitelion, Job Prospects, Direct Recruitment, Max Employment, Sarina Russo, Employment Plus, Wise Employment and AMES Australia